

CONFIDENTIAL APPLICATION
2022*EMERGING LEADERS
PROGRAM*TO THE APPLICANT:

As an emerging leader in the architectural profession, you are submitting this application form because you were nominated to participate in the AIA Emerging Leaders Program by a leader in your firm, or by someone affiliated with AIA. The AIA Dallas Leadership Committee created this program with the intent that it will allow participants to enhance their abilities in three areas of leadership: the firm, the profession, and the community. It is the committee's hope that each participant will use the skills obtained through the program to not only enhance their own careers, but also to impact the success and culture of their firms and the Dallas architectural community. The program consists of one (1) evening kickoff and one (1) half-day orientation on January 14-15, 2022, followed by nine (9) meetings to be held once a month on Fridays beginning February 2022. Each class includes guest speakers and lectures by program facilitator Pete DeLisle PhD, Hon. TxA, Professor of Human Behavior, and Principal of Educet and the Leadership Design Studio. Upon completion of the program, participants will be recognized as AIA Dallas Emerging Leaders and will receive recognition at a local AIA Dallas chapter event.

Note: To encourage firm collaboration and diversity, the AIA Dallas Emerging Leaders Program limits enrollment to a maximum of two participants per firm.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS:

To qualify for this program, an applicant must be:

- employed full-time by an architectural firm in the immediate chapter area,
- on the path to architectural licensure or have recently become licensed,
- with at least 5 years of experience in the architecture or design fields,
- in good standing with the American Institute of Architects and all other professional organizations,
- able to commit the time and effort to participate in at least one AIA chapter network(s) and/or committee(s) (Committee meetings provide a forum for dialogue and typically meet once a month at lunch time), and
- able to commit the time and effort necessary as outlined in this document.

INSTRUCTIONS:

The following are imperative for an applicant's acceptance:

- Application should be neatly printed or typed. Do not use additional pages or attach resumes or other documents.
- At least one, but no more than three, completed reference forms are required along with this application.
- Completed application and reference form(s) are due by noon, Monday, December 13, 2021.
- When the application period closes, the selection committee will promptly begin the review and selection process. Late submissions will not be considered.
- Admission to the program is based on the applicant meeting all criteria. Please note that preference will be given to current AIA Dallas architect/associate/allied members.
- All applicants will be notified of the decision by December 17, 2021. Invoices for program fees will be sent to all selected applicants and the corresponding sponsoring firms at this time.

TUITION:

A tuition fee of $2,250 shall be paid no later than the date of the program kickoff (January 14, 2022). Tuition is non-refundable one week after orientation. Late payment of the tuition forfeits your candidacy which will be offered to the first qualified alternate. The employer/sponsor pays $1,950 of the fee, with the remaining $300 to be paid by the participant as a personal commitment to the program.

Tuition for non-AIA member is $2,750. Of which, the employer/sponsor will be responsible for $2,250, with the remaining $500 to be paid by the participant as a personal commitment to the program.

TUITION WAIVER REQUEST:

Waivers for tuition are available for candidates facing financial hardships, and for non-profit sponsors/firms. One of each of the following may be awarded on a case-by-case basis (please check if applicable):

- Full waiver $2,250/$2,750
- Partial waiver $1,950/$2,250 on the Sponsor's behalf
- Partial waiver $300/$500 on the Candidate's behalf

Candidate: if applicable, please provide enough detail and background information for the waiver request to be considered by the AIA Dallas Board of Directors.

Sponsoring firm: if applicable, please submit proof of non-profit status along with this completed application.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS:

Assuming 100% attendance, participants who are AIA members will receive approximately 18 CEU's upon completion of the program.

COMMITMENT:

The AIA Dallas Emerging Leaders Program requires a significant commitment of time and effort. Participation involves an evening kickoff and half-day orientation/retreat on January 14-15, 2022, followed by one session each month for nine months beginning February 2022, preliminary assignments for each of the sessions, and a class project.

Participants must be able to fulfill program attendance requirements to graduate. All sessions will be in-person.

- The date for Orientation is Saturday, January 15, 2022, 9:00am-2:30pm. Full participation at the orientation is mandatory. If selected, can you commit to this ½ day? Yes No
- Program sessions will be held one Friday per month, 1:00 – 5:00pm, with a break, and an opportunity for networking at the end of the session, to include the following 2022 dates, which are subject to change: February 18, March 11, April 15, May 13, June 17, July 15, August 19, September 16, October 14. If selected, can you commit to the nine Friday sessions?
 Yes No

If no, please state the date(s) that would present a conflict:

- Dates and times for events held outside of normal session times will be announced at a later date. This will include a class project to entail service to the community and/or the architectural profession.
- Participation in at least one AIA Dallas network(s)/committee(s). Committee meetings provide a forum for dialogue, and typically take place once a month at lunch time. Please indicate network(s)/committee(s) you are interested in: _____

No more than 2 classes may be missed without dismissal from the program. No Exceptions.
