

"The lack of mobility choices remains a social justice issue."
Panelist David Marquis,
Texas Conservation Alliance

"Have compassion for those who have different perspectives. Viciousness in public debate never helps."
Jeff Tumlin, Nelson Nygaard

"Are planners willing to make tough choices and include new voices in the conversation?"
Christian Yazdanpanah,
The Commit! Partnership

"No great city is ever going to have the slogan, 'It's an easy place to drive through.' Just never let up on making Dallas a fantastic place to be."
Jeff Tumlin, Nelson Nygaard

"A sign that Dallas is maturing is that there's more than one hot spot. City life is coming back."
Scott Griggs, Dallas City Council

"We need to attract employment downtown; there is so much inexpensive land in the south part of town."
Maria Loveland-Schneider, lead developer for the Buckner Station T.O.D. in S.E. Dallas

 AIA Dallas @aiadallas
"@walkabledfw false Dallas truism: it was built for car. Was built for rail and pedestrians #transpodfw"

People Respond to the Mobility Summit

"The Trinity Toll Road isn't appropriate for South Dallas. The solution is to fix the core."
Panelist Roddrick West, HKS

"Today's generation wants to create density, and make it easier to be downtown."
Panelist Roddrick West, HKS

 Revolutionary Pants @revpants
"Roads need to be assets not just people movers."
Maria Loveland Schnieder #transpodfw

 Omniplan @omniplan_Arch
"No one misses highways when they're gone."
Alex Krieger #transpodfw

 sugarsaint @thesugarsaint
"Traffic is kind of like plumbing; the water just goes where it can"
Alex Krieger re: hwy tear down apocalypse fears #transpodfw

 Eric Celeste @EricCeleste
"All smart cities are fighting against dumb urban highways."

 SparkFarm @SparkFarm
"Driving 75 MPH whenever we want is not a god-given right."
Alex Krieger #transpodfw

 Peter Graves @ellerygraves
@WalkableDFW "economy always occurs at intersections. How can we create more intersections?" #transpodfw

 Jeffrey Tumlin @jeffreytumlin
"Next task for Dallas: going really big on the 1000s of small projects that make cities truly great."
#transpodfw @aiadallas